

ARGUMENTS FOR LYNCH AND KING

Are Made For New Trial in Supreme Court.

BOTH CASE IS UP ALSO

OCTOBER TERM BEGINS—NEW LAWYERS ADMITTED TO BAR.

Arguments for a new trial for James Lynch, the escaped murderer of Colonel Gifford, and his partner, R. L. King, were heard late yesterday afternoon by the judges of the state supreme court. While deputy sheriffs, state penitentiary attaches and citizens were securing the country for the alleged leader in the fatal hold-up of the Sheep Ranch gambling house of Commercial street, his attorneys, H. C. Edwards and William F. Wanless, were trying to convince the supreme court that Lynch did not kill Colonel Gifford, but that another man did. As regards King, they argued that he did not have anything to do with the killing—not being there at the time.

The arguments were made during the afternoon session of the first day of the October term of that tribunal. In the morning attorneys William F. Wanless and Judge M. M. Warner of Provo argued the motion for a new trial for Charles Botha, better known as "Dutch Charlie." When they had been concluded, attorneys W. K. Reid and Judge H. P. Henderson argued for a new trial for John Edmunds, who is accused of stealing ten sheep from Benjamin Davis and Thomas H. Davis on Nov. 1, 1902. He was tried before Judge Jacob Johnson at Mantol on Jan. 19, 1902, and after being found guilty was sentenced on March 9 to four years in the state penitentiary.

In all three of the criminal cases Assistant Attorney General White represented the interests of the commonwealth.

Lawyers Admitted to Practice.

When the court convened and after several unimportant cases had been disposed of by motion, either being continued for a specified time or continued indefinitely, the following young men were admitted to practice in the state: Robert Baird Porter, Timothy C. Hoyt, Will Carleton Bruffett, George Cooper Buckle, Arthur Victor Quinn and John Adams Smedley.

The first of the four criminal cases to be argued was that of Botha. It was contended in his behalf that the shooting of his wife was accidental, and that he had just provoked to take the life of William Tibbitts because of the alleged actions of the man toward Botha's wife. In the afternoon Judge M. M. Warner of Provo visited the penitentiary and secured an affidavit from Trusty J. C. Schuckers that during the progress of the break Friday evening Botha did not make a request to be released from his cell that he might make an attempt to escape.

The court then took a recess until 2 o'clock when the sheep-stealing case was argued. It was followed by the Lynch and King cases. The arguments lasted until after the usual hour for the adjournment of court, but it was continued to give the attorneys an opportunity to complete their statements.

District Court Notes.

Victor Peterson of Bingham, who was convicted last week of involuntary manslaughter in riding down and accidentally killing Florence Hicks, will be arraigned for sentence this morning before Judge Charles W. Morse in the criminal division of the district court.

ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

Orphans' Home Nursery Founded Nineteen Years Ago Yesterday.

Those interested in the philanthropic work of rescuing and caring for orphans met yesterday afternoon at the Orphans' Home Nursery, 1919 South State street, for the purpose of participating in the celebration of the nineteenth anniversary of the founding of the institution. The society met in the parlors of the nursery. The attendance of those in sympathy with the work was very large. At the conclusion of the arranged program light refreshments were served.

The feature of the exercises was the historical sketch by Mrs. Arthur Bruffett, chairman of the finance committee and historian of the board of directors. It gave a complete resume of what the society has done since it was founded nineteen years ago. The work of the board and what it has accomplished in times past was told by Mrs. Frank Kimball. Mrs. Kimball's personal recollections of the work done by Mrs. Josephine Adams Johnson, who gave an outline of Mrs. Kimball's personal recollections of the work done by Mrs. Mesdames Varian, Trent and A. C. Bassing. The work Mrs. Putnam has accomplished was told by Mrs. Agleby.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Democratic club will be held on Wednesday, Oct. 14, at 2:30, at the residence of Mrs. Roundy, 546 West First North. All club members urged to attend. Friends welcome.

SPECULATORS REAP BENEFIT

Land Commissioner Favors Repeal of Timber and Stone Act.

HEAVY INCREASE IN ENTRIES

FIGURES UPON WHICH REPORT IS BASED.

(Special to The Herald) Washington, Oct. 12.—In his forthcoming annual report Land Commissioner Richards will present forceful arguments in favor of the radical modification of the timber and stone act. He builds his arguments upon the showing of rapidly increasing timber entries in late years.

Out of 19,741,130 acres of public lands entered during the past fiscal year, 1,765,222 were covered by timber entries, more than three times the area of timber entries in the preceding year. This growth is better appreciated when it is known that in the twenty-two years the timber and stone act has been operative, less than 7,000,000 acres all told have been entered under its provisions.

Commissioner Richards objects to the timber and stone act because it allows entrymen, largely speculators, to acquire for $2.50 an acre lands that are easily worth $100.

"There is no doubt that the law is being taken advantage of by speculators, who are getting rich at the expense of the government and of men for whose benefit the law was primarily passed," says he. "It is right that this timber should be cut and used commercially, but the government should get an adequate return for parting with property. Matured timber should be cut when ripe. Therefore, I would not favor a law that proposed to cut off all sales, but I believe that the present law is defective and should be repealed. The government has more timber land than all the lumber companies own together, and it would not be just to put a fence about the forest and forbid cutting."

Commissioner Richards also recommends the repeal of the commutation clause of the homestead act.

INDICTMENTS NO GOOD.

Kansas Jurist Escapes Trial on Nineteen Counts.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 12.—A special to the Star from Leavenworth, Kan., says: Judge John F. Phillips, in the United States circuit court here, today handed down a decision holding in effect that none of the nineteen counts in the first indictment against former Judge William Martindale, who was indicted by the federal jury on the alleged charge of misappropriating the funds of the defunct First National bank of Emporia, are good. There is still another indictment against Martindale in connection with the handling of funds in several small bank feeders to the First National of Emporia.

The indictments against Judge Martindale, who was vice president of the concern, grow out of the failure of the First National bank in 1898, when President Charles Cross, a noted cattle breeder, committed suicide after an investigation that disclosed the fact that he had lost the bank's money in speculation. Although Cross left a confession exonerating Martindale, the latter was indicted.

DEMANDS REFUSED.

Strike Probable on Lines of Chicago City Railway Company.

Chicago, Oct. 12.—Renewed refusal to grant the demands of employees for increased wages and the exclusive employment of union men was given today by the Chicago City Railway company, C. O. Pratt, general organizer, and a committee of the Amalgamated Street Railway Employees called at the office with authority of the company's employees to order a referendum vote as to the advisability of a strike unless the company reconsidered an advance answer to the demands. General Manager McCulloch told the committee that the "closed shop" and the wage increase could not be conceded. Mr. McCulloch, however, repeated his offer to submit the whole case to arbitration.

REFUSED TO TESTIFY.

Watson Feared He Might Incriminate Himself.

Chicago, Oct. 12.—James S. Watson, former president of the Peter Brothers company, refused to testify before Bankruptcy Referee Frank E. Wean today regarding the rebates said to have been received from transportation companies in connection with the commission business of that concern. Watson took the position that such testimony might incriminate him, as the giving or receiving of rebates is an offense against the laws. The question was finally submitted to the referee for an opinion.

FURNACES CLOSE DOWN.

Columbus, O., Oct. 12.—A special to the Dispatch from Youngstown, O., says: In compliance with the agreement of the furnace operators to close down for the purpose of restricting the production of pig iron the Laurel furnace at Hazelton, owned by the Republic Iron & Steel company, closed down today. Other furnaces in the Mahoning valley are making preparations to close and the indications are that the agreement will be carried out to the letter.

BANDITS IDENTIFIED.

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 12.—St. Joseph detectives today at the penitentiary here positively identified photographs of John King, Charles Rain and George Svergs, the men now in jail at Beatrice, charged with holding up a Burlington passenger train near Amazonia, Mo., two weeks ago, as those of the alleged robbers. The detectives have gone to Beatrice to make the identification complete.

SETTLED DOWN TO WORK.

Camp Young, West Point, Ky., Oct. 12.—Since the departure of the state troops the regulars have settled down to steady, hard work, which will continue until Friday, when they will leave for their home stations. The problem today involved advance and rear guard movements.

WILL HAVE CIVIL TRIAL.

Pittsburg, Oct. 12.—Private John Dowd, the United States sentry who shot and killed William H. Crowley near the United States arsenal several weeks ago, and was later tried by courtmartial and exonerated, was turned over to the civil authorities for trial today.

WAIVED HIS APPEAL.

Toronto, Ont., Oct. 12.—Leopold J. Stern, indicted at Washington in connection with the postal frauds, has waived his appeal against the extradition order recently obtained by the United States authorities and will return to Washington.
